Description of Setting:

8501 Kanawha Road Pound, VA 24279 was historically home to a group home setting that was operated by Rachel's Haven. This setting is no longer in operation and does not support any individuals at this location. The provider has moved this program off of the historically "campus-style" setting to a different location in town that allows for more community access and integration.

As this setting is no longer in operation, the presumption of isolation has been removed.

Evidence included: interviews with staff and individuals, tour of property 9/8/2021

Section Two
